DBCT Management's phase 1 actual cost Draft Amending Access Undertaking

On 1 October 2009, BBI (DBCT) Management Pty Limited (DBCT Management) submitted a draft amending access undertaking (DAAU) to amend its revenues and charges based on the actual costs of its phase 1 expansion.

On 1 October 2009, the Authority notified stakeholders of its intention to commence an investigation under s.145 of the Queensland Competition Authority Act 1997 (the QCA Act) to decide whether or not to approve DBCT Management's extension DAAU. Stakeholders were requested to lodge submissions by 28 October 2009.

Time periods

In accordance with s.147A of the QCA Act, the Authority must endeavour to decide whether to approve a DAAU within six months from the last day of the time for making submissions stated in the investigation notice.

The six-month period does not include any of the following periods:

- (a) a day in the period given by the Authority for making submissions in relation to a DAAU or a related document;
- (b) a day in the period where a person has been required to give information or produce a document in response to a notice given by the Authority under s.185 of the QCA Act; and
- (c) day(s) agreed to, by the owner or operator of the service or the responsible person, as not being included in the six-month period.

Six-month period for DBCT Management's extension DAAU

In accordance with s.147A(4) of the QCA Act, the Authority states the following time periods for DBCT Management's 2006 DAAU:

- (a) the six-month period commenced on 1 October 2009; and
- (b) the six-month period ends on 1 April 2010.

The six-month period does not include the following days:

From	To	Total Days	Reason
1 October 09	28 October 09	27	The Authority gave these days to DBCT Management and interested parties to make submissions on the DAAU.

On 10 December 2009, the Authority approved DBCT Management's phase 1 actual cost DAAU.
