

From: Charles Misi [<mailto:charles.misi@my.jcu.edu.au>]
Sent: Thursday, 10 April 2014 5:43 PM
To: General Aquaculture Investigation
Subject: Aquaculture in remote Indigenous communities

There is a huge demand for aquaculture projects in the Torres Strait and other Cape York communities to promote investment in sustainable aquaculture infrastructure and economically viable industries. The remote locations provide pristine marine ecosystems and environments suitable for many highly demanded finfish, molluscs, crustaceans and holothurians. Would you please send information via email to kickstart aquaculture in remote communities.

Regards

Charles Misi