

In many sectors we are seeing big business increasing their prices however consumers are not accepting the increase being passed along. A 10% price increase on our electricity in addition to a CPI rent increase, water tariff increase and telecommunications cost increase see's our margins get tighter and tighter. Our small business simply cannot afford to keep absorbing increases for our services.