

Please Please Please do not increase electricity tarrifs. My business in Far North Queensland is really struggling. No work and no Government spending so no income. An electricity increase will literally send me broke.