

We are a small residential renovation building company employing up to 4 staff, With these constant increases in overhead costs we will find it very difficult to be competitive in an already competitive market. Please re-consider the current proposed increase to save small and family businesses.