AGL Energy

Late Payment Fee Progress Report - 1 April to 30 June 2022

| # | Indicator | Total Customers | Outcome |
| :---: | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| $\mathbf{1}$ | Active AGL customers who were  credited late payment fees. | $\mathbf{1 2 , 3 9 9}$ active AGL customers  were provided with an  account credit. | $\mathbf{\$ 4 5 1 , 2 4 9 . 7 9}$ total account credits  were applied. |
| $\mathbf{2}$ | Former AGL customers who sought a  direct refund of late payment fees  charged. | $\mathbf{1 2 , 0 3 1}$ former AGL customers  were provided with an  account credit. | Up to 30 June 2022, 2609 former  AGL customers have received a  direct refund, for a total amount of  $\mathbf{\$ 8 6 , 0 3 5 . 3 2}$ |
| $\mathbf{3}$ | Periodic review to monitor that that  late payment fees are not charged  to small electricity customers in  Queensland on a Standard Retail  Contract | As of 30 June 2022, AGL had a  total of 53,068 small  electricity standing offer  customers in Queensland  (reported in our FY22Q4 AER  performance report). | No late payment fees were charged  to small electricity standing offer  customers in Queensland during  the reporting period. |

